Corporate Membership Program User Benefits

Individual Membership--As Corporate Membership program participant, five (5) of your employees are eligible for membership to the ESD Association. Memberships to the Association are individual memberships and run on a calendar year (January-December). Enclosed in this packet you will find 5 membership applications. Please have 5 selected employees complete the applications and return them to the Association Headquarters either via fax or mail. They in turn will receive a membership packet that will include their membership card and certificate, a copy of the latest Symposium Proceedings, and other Association information. As members, your five employees will have access to our Members Only section of the ESD Association's web site (www.esda.org), receive a discount on publications, pay reduced registration fees at the annual Symposium and receive the Association's newsletter, Threshold, and be eligible for other benefits. The memberships included in your Corporate Sponsorship Program are good for membership year _____.

Corporate Standards Site License--A Corporate Standards Site License is a key part of your Corporate Membership program. You will receive a CD containing all ESD Association standards documents and a company-wide license to place the documents on your internal intranet or provide other company-wide access for your internal company use. This agreement covers all standards, standard test methods, standard practices, glossary and ESD Handbook. Any new or revised standards issued during the 12-month period are provided as automatic updates. Your site license is valid from _____ to _____. Please complete the enclosed contact information sheet and return to ESD Headquarters to receive your contract and license.

Corporate ESD Review Based on ANSI/ESD S20.20 (Documentation)--The ESD Association offers Corporate Membership participants the opportunity to have their ESD program evaluated to ANSI/ESD Standard 20.20. To receive this valuable benefit, submit your current ESD program documentation to the ESD Association Headquarters along with the included Contact Sheet either via hard or soft copy. The documentation will then be reviewed and a report issued in return. The evaluation will include areas that need to be addressed, ideas for improvement and an overall assessment of your company's program.

Symposium Registrations--As a Corporate Membership program participant, five (5) selected employees may attend the upcoming ____ EOS/ESD Symposium held in _____ from _____. Registrants should complete and return a Symposium registration form to ESD Headquarters by _____.

forms will be processed as received and are subject to space availability. Standard Symposium packets, including a copy of the Proceedings and any coupons, invitations etc., are included. Symposium passes cover all normal on-site Symposium privileges, however, are not inclusive of any other offer or membership benefit.

Symposium 1-Day Tutorial Registration— As a Corporate Membership program participant, five (5) selected employees may attend the upcoming ____ EOS/ESD Tutorials held in _____ from _____. Registrants should complete and return a Tutorial registration form to ESD Headquarters by _____. Registration forms will be processed as received and are subject to space availability.

Educational Units--As a Corporate Membership program participant, you are entitled to (5) educational units offered from _____ to _____. These units may be used toward tutorials offered at the Symposium or any seminars offered throughout the year by the ESD Association. Registrants should complete and return a registration form to ESD Headquarters. Registration forms will be processed as received and are subject to space availability. Each unit is valued at $495 each. Units may be combined, however, the Association will not refund any portion of the dollar amount not used. (For example: if a seminar costs $800 per individual, you may use two coupons to cover the entire cost of the seminar. However, the Association will not refund or credit you the additional $150 value of the combined coupons).
